SEAN F. McAVOY, CLERK

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

No. 4:15-CR-6049-EFS-23

Plaintiff,

ORDER REGARDING SCHEDULE FOR

v.

JOSE ADRIAN MENDOZA,

Defendant.

On this day, Defendant, accompanied by his attorney, Scott Johnson, appeared and pleaded guilty or was found guilty in this matter. The Government was represented by Stephanie Van Marter, Assistant United States Attorney.

IT IS ORDERED that the date of the sentencing is Tuesday, December 11, 2018, at 1:30 PM in RICHLAND. If a sentence of incarceration is imposed, the Defendant shall be placed in custody at the time of sentencing. Sentencing will be scheduled for a total of forty-five (45) minutes. If it is believed that the sentencing hearing will last longer, counsel shall contact Chambers within fourteen (14) days of disclosure of the presentence investigation report. Pending sentencing, Defendant's detention status or release status shall remain pursuant to this court's previous order. The United States Probation Office shall

1 prepare a timely presentence investigation report that will comply with 2 the following schedule:

3 1. Not less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the sentencing
4 hearing, the probation officer shall disclose the pre-sentence
5 investigation report to the Defendant, counsel for Defendant, and the 6 Government.

7 2. Within fourteen (14) days of the disclosure of the pre-sentence 8 investigation report, counsel shall communicate in writing to the 9 probation office any objections they may have as to factual errors or 10 omissions; sentencing classifications; conditions of supervised
11 release/probation; sentencing guideline ranges; and policy statements 12 contained in or omitted from the report. Such communication may be 13 oral initially but shall immediately be confirmed in writing to the 14 probation officer and opposing counsel.

15 3. Also within fourteen (14) days of disclosure of the presentence 16 investigation report, counsel shall file and serve all motions and 17 memoranda pertaining to Defendant's sentence, including motions for 18 downward or upward departures. Counsel shall utilize the following 19 format when preparing initial memoranda which are limited to twenty 20 pages (absent prior Court permission to file an overlength brief): I.
21 Base Offense Level & Enhancements, II. Departures, III. 18 U.S.C.
22 3553(a). Under the "Base Offense Level & Enhancements" section, counsel
23 shall discuss whether the PSIR's Total Offense Level calculations (not 24 including departures) are correct or incorrect, providing legal 25 authority for the party's position. Under the "Departure" section, 26 counsel shall discuss whether a downward and/or upward departure is

1 warranted under the Guidelines and provide legal authority for such 2 position. Under the "18 U.S.C. 3553(a)" section, counsel shall discuss 3 whether the resulting guideline range provides a reasonable sentence
4 sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes
5 set forth in 18 U.S.C. 3553(a)(2), considering the other factors listed
6 in 3553(a), and whether the party is challenging a recommended standard
7 or special condition of supervised release. The parties are limited to 8 one reply of no more than 7 pages. No other pleadings are allowed without 9 advance permission of the Court. FAILURE TO FILE AND SERVE A MOTION FOR 10 DOWNTWARD DEPARTURE WITHIN 14 DAYS OF RECEIPT OF THE PRESENTENCE
11 INVESTIGATION REPORT WILL BE DEEMED A WAIVER OF THE RIGHT TO DO SO. The 12 time frame for filing and serving responses to such motions shall be 13 governed by Local Rule 7.1. Any request with regard to self-reporting 14 shall be made to the probation office at the same time any 15 objections/motions are filed.

16 4. After receiving counsel's objections, the probation officer 17 shall conduct any further investigation and make any revisions to the 18 presentence report that may be necessary. The probation officer may 19 require counsel for both parties to meet with the officer to discuss 20 unresolved factual and legal issues, and counsel shall make themselves 21 available for that purpose.

22 5. At least ten (10) days prior to the date of the sentencing 23 hearing the probation officer shall submit the presentence report to 24 the sentencing judge. The report shall be accompanied by an addendum 25 setting forth any objections counsel may have made, including those that 26 have not been resolved, together with the officer's comments and

1 recommendations thereon. The probation officer shall certify that the 2 contents of the report other than sentencing recommendations, including
3 any revisions or addenda, have been disclosed to counsel for Defendant
4 and the Government, and that the addendum fairly states any remaining 5 objections.

6 6. Except with regard to any written objection made under 7 subdivision (a), the report of the presentence investigation and 8 computations shall be accepted by the Court as accurate. For good cause 9 shown, however, the court may allow a new objection to be raised at any 10 time before the imposition of sentence. In resolving disputed issues 11 of fact, the court may consider any reliable information presented by 12 the probation officer, Defendant, or the Government.

13 7. Nothing in this rule requires the disclosure of any portions 14 of the presentence report that are not disclosable under Rule 32 of the 15 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

16 8. The presentence report shall be deemed to have been disclosed
17 (1) when a copy of the report is physically delivered; or (2) one day
18 after the availability of the report for inspection is orally
19 communicated; or (3) three days after a copy of the report, or notice
20 of its availability is mailed to counsel, whichever date is earlier.

21 9. Following sentencing, Defendant shall be taken into the 22 custody of the United States Marshal Service unless (1) Defendant has 23 been released prior to sentencing, (2) Defendant specifically requests 24 the opportunity to self-report, and (3) Defendant demonstrates that he 25 is a candidate for self-reporting. If Defendant requests the opportunity to self-report, Defendant must demonstrate the financial ability to travel to a facility on the East Coast.

IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk's Office is directed to enter this order and to provide copies to counsel, the U.S. Probation Office, and the U.S. Marshals Service.

DATED this 24th day of August 2018.
